There are a total of 7 proposed Amendments to the By Laws of the Ridgefield Historical Society.

Proposed Amendment #1

Article IV- The Board of Directors Section 3 as presently constituted reads as follows:

The Directors shall be elected for a term of two (2) years, one half of the Board to be elected each year. Starting in October of 2023, there shall be a limit of two consecutive for each Board member but there shall be no limit on the number of terms a Board member may serve. Nothing in the process shall prevent any former Board member from serving on any Committee of the Advisory Board.

It is proposed that Article IV The Board of Directors Section 3 be amended to read as follows:

The Directors shall be elected for a term of two (2) years, one half of the Board to be elected each year. Starting in October of 2023, there shall be a limit of two consecutive for each Board member but there shall be no limit on the number of terms a Board member may serve. Nothing in the process shall prevent any former Board member from serving on any Committee of the Advisory Board. This provision shall only apply to those Board members who are up for election in 2023 or any year thereafter and who as of the time of election have already served two consecutive terms. The Board may, at its discretion, for the good of the organization, extend the service of a Director beyond two consecutive terms.

Proposed Amendments #2

Article IV The Board of Directors Section 4 as presently constituted reads as follows:

Positions held by Directors include, without limitation, the following: Membership; Fund-raising; Education; Buildings and Grounds; Archives; Publicity; Historic Property Preservation; Genealogy and Newsletter. No Director may serve in the same position for more than two consecutive two-year terms; provided, however, the Board may at its discretion for the good of the organization, extend the service of a Director beyond two consecutive terms.

It is proposed that Article IV The Board of Directors Section 4 be eliminated.
